In addition, limited premises review information will be made available in the public register of Licence Applications and Premises Reviews - which the Licensing Act 2003 requires us to maintain.

Requesting a Review of a Premises Licence

A resident, organisation, business or Responsible Authority (e.g. Lincolnshire Police, Lincolnshire Trading Standards) can, at any time, apply to the Licensing Authority for a review of a premises licence (or a club premises certificate) on a ground relating to one or more of the licensing objectives (crime and disorder, public safety, public nuisance and the protection of children from harm)

An application for the review of a premises licence (or club premises certificate) must be given in writing and used the prescribed form (this form). The form must be fully completed.

It is important to note that an application for review cannot be made anonymously.

The person (or body) requesting the review must notify the holder of the premises licence (or club premises certificate) and each Responsible Authority of their request, by sending them a copy of the application for review, together with any accompanying documents, on the same day as the application is given to the Licensing Authority. The Licensing Authority must then advertise the application for review for a period of 28 days and invite representations from Responsible Authorities and interested parties.

The Licensing Authority can reject any application for a review if it considers it to be frivolous, vexatious or a repetition. If not rejected, the Licensing Authority must hold a Licensing Sub-Committee hearing (consisting of Councillors) to consider the review application.

The Statutory Guidance issued by the Home Office (in accordance with the Licensing Act 2003) considers that the review procedures represent a key protection for a community where problems with a licensed premises are occurring.

It should be noted that the Guidance recognises that the promotion of the licensing objectives relies heavily on a partnership between licence holders, authorised persons, interested parties and Responsible Authorities in pursuit of common aims. It is considered good practice for authorised persons and Responsible Authorities to give licence holders early warning of their concerns about problems identified at the premises concerned and of the need for improvement. It is expected that a failure to respond to such warnings would lead to a decision to request a review.

Similarly, in the case of interested parties, consideration should be given to whether their concerns could be effectively dealt with outside of the formal review process. Such steps could include:

- Talking with the licence holder to establish whether there are any steps they may be willing to take to rectify the situation.
- Asking the Licensing Section to talk to the licence holder on your behalf.
- Ask your local MP or Councillor to speak to the licence holder on your behalf.
- Talking to the relevant "Responsible Authority" (e.g. the Council's Environmental Health Team in relation to noise nuisance or Lincolnshire Police in relation to crime and disorder) to establish whether there is other action that can be taken to resolve the problem.

Who Can Make an Application for a Review?

The Licensing Act 2003 specifies that Responsible Authorities or interested parties may seek a review of a premises licence (and in the case of club premises certificate, this will also include members of the club).

The Responsible Authorities are:

- Lincolnshire Police;
- Lincolnshire Fire and Rescue;
- The Council's Health & Safety Team;
- The Council's Environmental Health Team;
- Lincolnshire Trading Standards;
- The Council's Planning Department;
- Lincolnshire Safeguarding Children Board;
- Lincolnshire Public Health Directorate;
- Home Office (Immigration Enforcement).

An interested party can be:

- An individual (resident), body (organisation) or business.

What is a Frivolous, Vexatious or a Repetitive Review Application?

As a general guide:

Frivolous and vexatious will bear their ordinary meaning. For example, the Licensing Authority might find the representations were vexatious if they arise because of disputes between rival businesses or frivolous if they clearly lacked seriousness.

Repetitious - A repetitious representation is one that is identical or substantially similar to:

- A ground for review in an earlier application, which has already been determined.
- Representations considered by the Licensing Authority when the premises licence was first granted.
- In addition to the above grounds, a reasonable interval has not elapsed since any earlier review or the grant of a licence.

The review process is not intended to be used simply as a second bite of the cherry following the failure of representations to persuade the Licensing Authority on earlier occasions. It is for the Licensing Authority to judge what should be regarded as a "reasonable interval" in these circumstances. However, the Home Office Guidance suggests that more than one review from an interested party should not be permitted within a period of twelve months on similar grounds, save in compelling circumstances (e.g. where new problems have arisen) or where it arises following a closure order.

How is the Review Application Considered?

Licensing hearings will take place in public, although the Licensing Sub-Committee may, in certain instances, decide that it is in the best interest of the public to hold the hearings (or part of the hearings) in private.

The details of all representations (including any interested parties' names) will be included in a Report that will be prepared by Officers from the Council's Licensing Section. These Reports are public documents and the Council is required to publish them. Copies of the Report and accompanying documentation (including the details of all parties to the review application) will be placed on the Council's website.

The applicant for the review, the holder of the licence, any Responsible Authorities and/or interested parties will be invited to attend the hearing. Any party to the proceedings will be able to be assisted or represented by any person at the hearing, regardless of whether or not that person is legally qualified.

What Action is Available to the Licensing Sub-Committee?

The 2003 Act sets out what steps the Sub-Committee can take in relation to an application for review of a premises licence.

The Sub-Committee can either make a decision at the end of the hearing or have up to a maximum of 5 days from the day of the hearing, or the last day of the hearing, to come to a decision.

Following consideration of the application, the Sub-Committee may:

- Decide that no action is necessary to promote the licensing objectives;
- Modify or add conditions to the licence;
- Exclude a licensable activity from the licence;
- Remove the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS);
- Suspend the licence for a period (not exceeding 3 months);
- Revoke the licence.

Alternatively the Sub-Committee could decide to give the licence holder a warning regarding future conduct.

If an applicant, licence holder, Responsible Authority or interested party is aggrieved by the decision of the Sub-Committee, they can appeal against the decision to the Magistrates Court within 21 days of receiving written notification of the Sub-Committee's decision.

Any persons considering such action are advised to take professional advice prior to commencing such proceedings.
