Council Tax Annexe Discount Information

This discount was introduced on 1 April 2014 and applies to an annexe (or similar) self contained part of a home which is occupied as part of the main home or is the main home of a relative of the person living in the main property. The annexe discount is a reduction of 50%. This reduction is in addition to other reductions you or your relative may be entitled to. In order to qualify for this discount the following criteria must be met:

The annexe must be a separate unit within a single property. Meaning it must be within the grounds of the main property and does not necessarily need to be attached to the main property, but must be included in the title deeds of the main property

AND

The annexe must be occupied by a relative (as their main residence) of the person who lives in the main property.

OR

The resident(s) of the main property use the annexe as part of their main home.

To qualify for this reduction, the relative must be one of the following:

- Spouse
- Parent
- Child or Grandchild
- Grandparent (Including Great Grandparents)
- Brother or Sister
- Uncle or Aunt
- Nephew or Niece

This includes relatives by marriage or civil partnership. Two people living together as if they were married or in a civil partnership, will be treated as such. The stepchild of a person shall be treated as his/her child.

If the relative is aged 65 or over, is severely mentally impaired or substantially and permanently disabled; or if the annexe is unoccupied and has a planning clause restricting who can occupy the property, you may qualify for an exemption. Please contact the Council Tax office on 01507 601111 to discuss further.

Privacy Information
