CATTLE MARKET							Car park periodically underused, good connection to the town centre but out of conformity with the Horncastle Neighbourhood Plan policies. Policy 2 - design should draw on local character and be in keeping with surrounding areas, this would be difficult given the open nature of the Wong and its setting adjacent to the Conservation Area, even landscaping would not shield the development sufficiently enough to mitigate the impact of a conflict with local character. Policy 4 - Heritage: development should not conflict with non designated heritage assets as set out in the plan, these are the former magistrates court and police station in the Wong. The development would be opposite the police station and landscaping could not mitigate an impact on the setting of this non designated heritage asset. Overall, a caravan site on the site of the Wong would conflict with these two policies and on balance would be unacceptable.
